(2) The person has been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere in a criminal prosecution under the laws of any state or of the United States for any offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a marital and family therapist, or for any offense an essential element of

3. Any person, organization, association, or corporation reporting or providing information to the board pursuant to the provisions of sections 337.400 to 337.440 and who does so in good faith shall not be subject to an action for civil damages as a result thereof.

4. After the filing of such complaint, the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 621, RSMo. Upon a finding by the administrative hearing commission that the grounds provided in subsection 2 of this section for disciplinary action are met, the board may censure or place the person named in the complaint on probation on such terms and conditions as the board deems appropriate for a period not to exceed five years, suspend the license for a period not to exceed three years, or revoke the license.

337.433. 1. Violation of any provision of sections 337.400 to 337.440 is a class B misdemeanor.

337.505. No person shall use the title of "professional counselor", "counselor" or "provisional licensed professional counselor" or engage in the practice of professional counseling in this state unless the person is licensed as required by the provisions of sections [337.500] 337.505 to 337.540.
